

MARK D. SMALLER, Ph.D.
Chicago, IL
Nominee for President-elect, American Psychoanalytic Association
www.markdsmaller.com
Curriculum Vitae

Current Professional Positions

Private Practice: Psychoanalysis and Psychotherapy: Adults, Adolescents and Children, Chicago; Douglas, MI
Director (Emeritus), Neuropsychoanalysis Foundation, New York (2005-Present)
Founding Director, Analytic Service to Adolescents Program (ASAP), Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis
Founding Director, Great Expectations, Saugatuck High School, Saugatuck MI

Academic Appointments

Faculty, Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis: Psychoanalytic Training Program (1996-Present);
Board of Trustees (1992-2003); President, Candidates Association President (1992-93); Past Committee: Admissions,
Evaluation of Learning; Budget; Recruitment; Founding Member, Committee on Multi-Cultural Issues
Faculty, Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy Program, Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis (1992-Present)
Faculty, Institute for Clinical Social Work, Chicago (1985-Present); Board of Trustees (2002-05)
Lecturer, University of Chicago, Chicago (1978-79)

Activities in the American Psychoanalytic Association

Councilor at Large (elect)
Nominee: President-elect, American Psychoanalytic Association (2009)
Department Head: Communications
Chairman, Committee on Public Information (May, 2009-Present); Co-chair 2000-09)
Chairman, Committee on Social Issues, (1997-2010)
Co-Chair, Committee on Foundations (1997-2008)
Board Member, American Psychoanalytic Foundation (1997-Present)
Member, Ad Hoc Task Force on the Soldiers and Veterans Initiative (2008-Present)
Co-chair, Ad Hoc Task Force on Strategic Marketing (2000-03)
Committee on Racial and Ethnic Diversity (2002-Present)
Member, Re-formation, Candidates (Affiliate) Council (1991)

Award: 2008 American Psychoanalytic Association Distinguished Service Award

Other Professional Activities

Board Member, Neuropsychoanalysis Foundation (2005-Present)
Executive Committee, International Society for Neuropsychoanalysis, London (2005-Present)
Chairman, Kohut Memorial Fund, Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis (2004-Present)

Education

Certificate in Adult Analysis (1996); Certificate in Child Analysis (2004), Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis;
Ph.D., 1985; A.M., 1975; School of Social Service Administration, University of Chicago
B.A. (English), 1973, University of Michigan

Recent TAP Publications, partial list (please visit www.markdsmaller.com for complete list)
(2007), "Psychoanalysis in the Streets: The Analytic Service to Adolescents Project." TAP Volume 40, #4
(2005). "Truth and reconciliation: psychoanalysis and diversity. TAP Volume 38, #1.
(2003). "Analysis is paralysis: organized psychoanalysis at a crossroad." TAP Volume 36, #3.
(2002). "Expanding our professional selves: a renewed commitment to social issues. TAP Volume 35 #4.
(2002). "Active fundraising strengthens psychoanalysis." TAP Volume 35 #3.

Recent Publications, partial list (please visit www.markdsmaller.com for complete list)
(2011), Throwing away the toys: psychoanalysis, neuropsychoanalysis and architecture. Chapter in Mind and Space:
Conference, Austin, Texas 2006; S. Sonnenberg, Editor (to be published)
(2011), "Psychoanalysis and the 'forward edge,' hit the streets." Psychoanalytic Inquiry (in press)
(2011), "The plague of bullying." Psychoanalytic Inquiry (in press)
(2010), "In the streets and out in the world: being a psychoanalyst in 2010." J. of Psychoanalytic Self Psychology
(2007), "We were all once children: how does analytic child treatment inform adult treatment?" Int'l J.
The Psychology of the Self
(2003). Working with adolescents: a time for reconsideration. Progress in Self Psychology, Volume 19.
(2002). Social work, psychoanalysis and smoke filled rooms: transformation of a professional self. In Psychoanalytic Social Work, Volume 9, #2, Haworth Press. (2001 ApsaA Presidential Symposium)